Good afternoon, Everyone, I'm Bunlong Heng, and my teammates are Andi and Rath ...

Today - We are very excited to present to you our project call the "Game world"

So - what motivate us to come up with the "Game World" idea is our Passions. Me, Andi, and Rath, love to play video game since we were little, we still love them now, and we will continue to love them forever.

Since - we all have the same inspiration to video games, we decided" Hey ! why not do something about video game"
